2. Medical Record and Booklet [1, 4]

- 2.1 The Institute shall issue Medical Booklets to the staff member and his/her eligible family members with all the relevant information including a photograph. The system of affixing photograph of the beneficiary on the medical booklet must be strictly followed. Separate booklets in different colors would continue to be issued for staff and their families. The Medical Booklets will be renewed/ revalidated/ replaced as per rules prescribed by the Institute from time to time.
- 2.2 Treatment facilities for dependents will be allowed only on the basis of valid booklets which have been renewed/ revalidated. The eligible persons desirous of availing the medical attendance and treatment shall be required to produce their Medical Booklet at the Health Center.
- 2.3 The medical booklets, also maintained as electronic booklets, should present the medical history of the holder.
- 2.4 The booklets must be surrendered when a staff leaves the Institute.

3. Medical Reimbursement Rules [1,4]

3.1 General reimbursement rules

- For reimbursement of both OPD and indoor treatment, the patient has to first consult an authorized medical attendant (AMA). The list of institute recognized AMA is given Annexure A. Patients are supposed to carry their medical booklet during their visit to the AMA.
 - Further specialist OPD/indoor treatment can be availed from any of the institute empanelled hospitals after obtaining necessary referral from the AMA. The list of empanelled hospitals is provided in Annexure B.
 - Claims for reimbursement have to be examined and countersigned by the AMA.
 - Consultation fee will be reimbursed at the rate of Rs.100 for non-specialists for each consultation and at the rate of Rs.500 for specialist for each consultation; or actual, whichever is less.
 - After obtaining the referral, any additional diagnostic tests can be availed from any of the empanelled hospitals/diagnostic centers on the recommendation of the referred doctor.
 - If the patient is too ill to travel to consult a specialist, the AMA can summon such specialist to attend upon the patient. The specialist summoned under this clause on production of a certificate in writing by the AMA shall be entitled to travelling allowance as per the institute rules for the journeys to and from the place where the patient resides.
 - If the AMA is of the opinion that owing to the severity of the illness, a patient cannot be given treatment at an empanelled hospital, the patient is entitled for treatment at his residence on production of a certificate in writing by the AMA.
 - For a daughter/son over the age of 18 years and for dependent parents, the concerned staff member must certify that he/she meets the dependency criteria stipulated by the institute, when filling for reimbursement.
 - Pre- and post-natal treatment of a female staff or spouse of a male staff is reimbursable without referral of AMA if treatment is obtained in any of the recognized Women's Hospital. Such treatment is reimbursable if the treatment is taken in any other empanelled hospital, under referral of the AMA.
- Reimbursement of the cost of medicines of Indian systems of medicine and homoeopathy is also admissible.
 - Pathological and diagnostic services must be obtained from institute empanelled hospitals and diagnostic centers as given Annexure B, under referral of the AMA.

- List of AMA and empanelled hospitals/diagnostic centers will be periodically revised by the Institute Medical Board.
- OPD/indoor treatment can be availed in any state or central government hospitals (see examples listed in Annexure C) without a referral from an AMA.
- In case of misuse of medical reimbursement facility, concerned staff member will be liable to disciplinary action.

3.2 Medical Claims which are Not Reimbursable[1]

- Medical treatment without prior referral from an AMA is not reimbursable except in case of a medical emergency, or for the above-mentioned exceptions.
- Medical treatment availed in a non-empanelled hospital is not reimbursable except in case of medical emergency.
- Medical emergency has to be certified by the attending doctor.
- Items, procedures and medical conditions listed in Annexure D are not reimbursable. Annexure D will be reviewed periodically by the medical board.

3.3 Reimbursable Medical Expenses against the OPD Treatment (Item 3.2, [1])

- The cost of consultation, diagnostics/investigations and medicines purchased from the market against the referral for the OPD treatment, when incurred as per rules, can be claimed by filling the Medical Claim Form for the OPD Treatment only.
- The reimbursement of admissible items in respect of OPD treatment will be made based on actuals, with 100% reimbursement upto CGHS rates, and 50% of the amount in excess.
- Proper break up of charges for various diagnostics/investigations, minor procedures etc. with original receipts must be provided along with the claim.
- For the reimbursement of eligible expenses, the claim form duly completed by the concerned staff member should be forwarded to Accounts Section.
- Prolonged treatment not requiring hospitalization may be defined as a case of single and continuous spell of illness. In such cases, upto (4) specialist OPD consultations over a maximum period of three (3) months is allowable before referral is again sought from AMA.
- In case of prolonged medical treatment, the validity of a prescription should not exceed a period of three (3) months
- The Medical Claim Form for the OPD Treatment along with the original receipts and photocopies of the prescriptions should be submitted within 90 days of treatment. Otherwise it will be considered to be time-barred and require special approval from the Director.

3.4 Reimbursable Medical Expenses against the Indoor Treatment [1][6]

- Charges against the Indoor Treatment including the hospital bills, stay charges, operation and allied charges, investigation charges, cost of medicines supplied by the hospital/purchased from market etc, when incurred as per rules, are reimbursable.

Admissible diagnostic tests and/or procedure/surgery in respect of indoor treatment are reimbursable 100% upto CGHS rates, and 50% of the amount in excess.

- . Such expenses can be claimed by filling the Medical Claim Form for the Indoor Treatment only.
- The entitlement for indoor treatment would be as per the following categories (Item 4.6, [1]):
 - Group C: General/Semi-private/Private Ward based on GOI norms;
 - Group B: Semi-Private/Private Ward based on GOI norms;
 - Group A: Private Ward;
- The form duly filled by the concerned staff member should be forwarded to Accounts Section.
- The Medical Claim Form for the Indoor Treatment along with the original receipts and photocopies of the prescriptions should be submitted to the CMO/Designate within 90 days of treatment. Otherwise it will be considered to be time-barred and would require special approval from the Director.
- In case of Indoor Treatment for major diseases, medical advance can be availed based on the estimation of hospital and on the recommendation of the AMA. Advance amount cannot exceed 90% [7] of the recommended amount. Advance will not be given after submission of medical reimbursement form.

3.5. Medical TA [7]

- Staff members and member of their families are entitled to T.A. for travel undertaken to avail Medical Attendance including admission in a recognized hospital as well as consultation with a Private specialist provided the journey is undertaken under the written advice of AMA and the journey is undertaken beyond 8 k.m. each way. T.A. for an escort will also be admissible in cases where it is certified by the AMA that the patient is not in a position to undertake the journey of his/her own
- The T.A. will be regulated as the T.A. Rules laid down by the Govt. of India from time to time, in addition to the provision contained in the Statue (Sch. AA). Medical T.A. claims should be preferred in the T.A. claim form and certified and countersigned by the Institute Medical Officer who referred the case to outside hospital/specialist.
